

SLO-FOX2

1       $\text{J} = 112$

high Q

2      snare drum 1
hig.    snare drum 2      pedal hi-hat
kick drum 2

3      open hi-hat

4      crash cymbal 1

5

6      tambourine

7

8

9

10

11      ride cymbal 1

12

13

14

15

16

hig.

A musical score for a drum set. The high tom part consists of vertical strokes on the first and third beats. The crash cymbal part features a vertical stroke on the first beat and a series of three vertical strokes on the third beat.

17

hig.

A musical score for a drum set. The high tom part has vertical strokes on the first and third beats. The mid tom part is labeled "mid tom 1" and consists of two vertical strokes on the second beat. The low tom part is labeled "low tom 1" and consists of three vertical strokes on the fourth beat.

18

hig.

A musical score for a drum set. The high tom part has vertical strokes on the first and third beats. The crash cymbal part features a vertical stroke on the first beat and a series of three vertical strokes on the third beat.

19

hig.

A musical score for a drum set. The high tom part has vertical strokes on the first and third beats. The crash cymbal part features a vertical stroke on the first beat and a series of three vertical strokes on the third beat.

20

hig.

A musical score for a drum set. The high tom part has vertical strokes on the first and third beats. The crash cymbal part features a vertical stroke on the first beat and a series of three vertical strokes on the third beat.

21

hig.

A musical score for a drum set. The high tom part has vertical strokes on the first and third beats. The crash cymbal part features a vertical stroke on the first beat and a series of three vertical strokes on the third beat.

22

hig.

A musical score for a drum set. The high tom part has vertical strokes on the first and third beats. The crash cymbal part features a vertical stroke on the first beat and a series of three vertical strokes on the third beat.

23

hig.

A musical score for a drum set. The high tom part has vertical strokes on the first and third beats. The crash cymbal part features a vertical stroke on the first beat and a series of three vertical strokes on the third beat.

24

hig.

crash cymbal 2

A musical score for a drum set. The high tom part has vertical strokes on the first and third beats. The crash cymbal part is labeled "crash cymbal 2" and consists of a single vertical stroke on the fourth beat.